2. 11.8.2008 Heard.

The allegation against the petitioner is of firing a shot and killing the deceased.

The contention is that there is no motive alleged as to why the deceased would be killed and if at all the petitioner was at the house of the informant why the informant could be brought to the Mill and there shot dead.

This could be the matters for the decision of the trial. As regards the allegation, it is direct against the petitioner considering which the petitioner does not deserve to be released.

The petition is dismissed.
